

Fact Sheet

- Leaders in sales of bottled wine in Chile.
- VSPT Wine Group is the second-largest wine exporting group in Chile.
- We export to over 80 countries around the world.
- We have 4,655 hectares planted: 4,270 in Chile and 380 in Argentina.
- Our production reached 15.9 million 9Lt boxes in 2017
- VSPT Wine Group is comprised of 7 wineries in Chile and 2 in Argentina: San Pedro, Tarapacá, Leyda, Santa Helena, Misiones de Rengo, Viñamar and Casa Rivas in Chile; La Celia and Tamarí in Argentina.
- Ownership of VSPT Wine Group is made up of the following: 83.01% belongs to CCU, 12.5% to the Yanghe Distillery Co. and 4.49% is split between minority shareholders.
- We are a team of over 1,100 employees.
- We sell 68 million liters of wine per year in Chile and 75 million liters in exports.
- The group has a total bottling capacity of 93,961 liters/hour.
- VSPT Wine Group was selected as “Green Company of the Year” in the 2016 Green Awards by The Drinks Business, as well as being recognized as the “Leader in Renewable Energy Implementation” and “Ethical Company of the Year” in 2018.
- VSPT Wine Group is winner in the “Human Rights” category at the Global Pact Principles (SIPP) 2018 thanks to its emblematic project Buchahueico.
- In 2017, VSPT Wine Group entered the Dow Jones Sustainability Index Chile.
- We promote responsible alcohol consumption through our b.smart program. We have completion of studies programs for our employees, as well as study grants for them and their families.
- We reveal our initiatives in biannual Sustainability Reports under GRI methodology.
- VSPT Wine Group has the world’s First Biogas Plant to generate clean energy using organic waste from harvest, which is used for our own operations.
- We have our own mini run-of-the-river Hydroelectric Plant at Viña Tarapacá, which supplies 60% of the energy consumed at the winery.
- We are certified under the National Sustainability Code from Wines of Chile in all three areas (Vineyards, Wineries and Communities), and we accompany our suppliers in their own certification.
- VSPT Wine Group has the following certifications: ISO 14001: ISO standard for Environmental Management. ISO 22000: ISO standard for Food Safety Management, and ISO 9001: ISO standard for Quality Management. Furthermore, we have the OHSAS 18001 certification: the standard for Occupational Health and Safety, and BRCv7.
- VSPT Wine Group has the Fairtrade certification in Argentina.