

Fact Sheet

- VSPT Wine Group is the second largest wine exporting group in Chile.
- It exports to 80 countries around the world.
- VSPT Wine Group is leader in fine wines in Chile.
- We have 4,244 hectares planted: 3,865 in Chile and 379 in Argentina.
- VSPT Wine Group produced 15.24 million 9Lt boxes in 2016
- VSPT Wine Group is comprised of 7 wineries in Chile and 2 in Argentina: San Pedro, Tarapacá, Leyda, Santa Helena, Misiones de Rengo, Viñamar and Casa Rivas in Chile; La Celia and Tamarí in Argentina.
- The company is owned in the following way: 64.72% belongs to CCU and 35.28% belongs to minority shareholders.
- We are a team of over 1,150 employees.
- In our company, we have employees of 16 different nationalities.
- 29% of our employees are 18-29 years; 31% are 30-40 years.
- 71% of our employees are men; 29% are women.
- We sell 62 million liters of wine per year in Chile, and 73 million liters in exports.
- The group has a total bottling capacity of 73,000 liters per hour.
- VSPT Wine Group was selected Green Company of the Year in 2016 by Drinks Business, as well as being recognized as Leader in Renewable Energy Implementation.
- In 2015, we achieved our goal of implementing 360 sustainable initiatives and became the winery with most sustainable initiatives in the world.
- We reduced our CO₂ footprint by 26.5% per bottle of wine produced between 2014-2015 (direct and indirect emissions). Moreover, we reached the figure of 97.3% recyclability for our waste.
- We promote responsible alcohol consumption through our b.b.bien Program. We have Education Leveling Programs for our associates and study grants for them and their families.
- We have systematically reduced our water consumption in the wineries over the past 5 years.
- We report our initiatives in Biannual Sustainability Reports, under GRI methodology.
- VSPT Wine Group has the First Biogas Plant in the world which generates clean energy using our own waste from harvest, in order to supply energy for our own operation.
- We have our own mini run-of-the-river Hydroelectric Plant at Viña Tarapacá, which supplies 60% of the energy consumed at our winery in Isla de Maipo.
- We are certified under the National Sustainability Code from Wines of Chile in the three areas (Vineyards, Wineries and Communities), and we accompany our suppliers in their certification process.
- VSPT Wine Group has the following certifications: ISO 14001: ISO Environmental Management Standard. ISO 22000: ISO Food Safety Management Standard and ISO

vspt.wine.group

Chile. San Pedro. Tarapacá. Leyda. Santa Helena. Misiones de Rengo.
Viñamar. Casa Rivas. Argentina. La Celia. Tamarí

9001: ISO Quality Management Standard. We are also certified under the OHSAS
18001: Occupational Health and Safety standard.

- VSPT Wine Group has the Fair Trade certification in Argentina.