

Fact Sheet

- Leaders in sales of bottled wine in Chile. One of the 10 most important actors of the Argentinian market.
- VSPT Wine Group is the second-largest wine exporting group in Chile.
- We export to over 80 countries around the world.
- We have 5.335 hectares planted: 4,270 in Chile and 1,065 in Argentina.
- Our production reached 16 million 9Lt boxes in 2018.
- VSPT Wine Group is comprised of 7 wineries in Chile and 2 in Argentina: San Pedro, Tarapacá, Leyda, Santa Helena, Misiones de Rengo, Viñamar and Casa Rivas in Chile; La Celia and Tamarí in Argentina. Recently the group announced the acquisition of Bodega Graffigna in San Juan, Argentina.
- Ownership of VSPT Wine Group is made up of the following: 83.01% belongs to CCU, 12.5% to the Yanghe Distillery Co. and 4.49% is split between minority shareholders.
- We are a team of over 1,200 employees.
- In 2018, we sold 68 million liters of wine in Chile and 70 million liters in exports.
- The group has a total bottling capacity of 98,040 liters/hour.
- We promote responsible alcohol consumption through our b.smart program.
- VSPT Wine Group was recognized as “Green Company of the Year” in the 2016 Green Awards by The Drinks Business, as well as being recognized as the “Leader in Renewable Energy Implementation”.
- VSPT Wine Group is winner in the “Human Rights” category at the Global Pact Principles (SIPP) 2018 thanks to its emblematic project Buchahueico in the Malleco Valley.
- We reveal our initiatives in biannual Sustainability Reports under GRI methodology.
- VSPT Wine Group is committed to produce wines using 100% renewable electric energy by 2021 from three different clean sources: bioenergy, hydroelectric and solar energy.
- First winery that re-certifies for the fourth time under the National Sustainability Code from Wines of Chile in all three areas (Vineyards, Wineries and Communities), and we accompany our suppliers in their own certification.
- VSPT Wine Group has the following certifications: ISO 14001: ISO standard for Environmental Management. ISO 22000: ISO standard for Food Safety Management, and ISO 9001: ISO standard for Quality Management. Furthermore, we have the OHSAS 18001 certification: the standard for Occupational Health and Safety, and BRCv7.
- VSPT Wine Group has the Fairtrade certification in Argentina.